The

fastest-growing channels own a specific niche, not a broad topic. "Marketing" is too broad. "LinkedIn growth for B2B founders" is ownable.

Q1.
What is your channel's specific niche?

Complete this:
"I make videos for [specific audience] about [specific topic] so they can [specific outcome]"

Q2.
What are your 3 content pillars?

Every video should fit into one of three recurring themes

PHASE 2 — VIDEO SEO

YouTube is the world's second-largest search engine. Every video needs to be optimised before it's published.

Title: include the primary search keyword in the first 5 words, under 60 characters, create a uriosity

or promises a clear outcome

Description:

PHASE 3 — VIDEO STRUCTURE FOR RETENTION

Average view duration is the most important signal YouTube uses to rank and recommend videos. Target 50%+ average view duration.

1. Hook (0–30 s ec)

State what the video will teach, show the outcome, or tease the most interesting moment. Never start with "Hey guys, welcome back."

2. Pro

per

S Every 2–3 minutes, remind viewers why they should keep watching: "And coming up at 8 minutes, the [most valuable part]."

5.
CTA

(last 60 seconds)
One clear action: subscribe, watch next video, download resource, or book a call.
